V. Meetings

1. Executive Board Meetings: The Executive Board shall meet monthly.

1.1. A majority of Executive Board members must be present at these meetings in order for any decisions made to be binding.

1.2. A decision is binding if a majority of the Executive Board members present agree.

2. OLT Meetings: The Executive Board shall conduct open meetings in January, April, August, November, and December.

2.1. A majority of Executive Board members must be present at these meetings in order for any vote to be binding.

2.2. In the event these meetings need to be rescheduled, a majority of the Executive Board must agree on the reschedule date.

2.3. The Executive Board shall disseminate an agenda to these meetings to all Friends in good standing prior to each scheduled meeting.

2.4. The Executive Board shall conduct the business of the group. If, as decided by members of the Executive Board, a vote of those present is desired to make a binding decision, said vote will be conducted by the Communications & Membership Manager. A binding decision refers to one agreed to by a majority of those present.

2.5. In the event a special OLT meeting is required for any reason as determined by a majority of the Executive Board, the Communications & Membership Manager shall notify Friends no less than one week in advance.

VI. Elections

1. Elections shall occur at the December OLT Meeting.
2. The term of office for a member of the Executive Board is one year, completed by season, from January 1 to December 31.
3. Only Friends in good standing, who have been Friends since July 15 of that year, are eligible for nomination and to vote in elections.
4. An announcement regarding elections will be made by the Communications & Membership Manager in October positions shall occur at the November OLT Meeting. Any eligible Friend is able to self-nominate at, or prior to, that meeting for one or more positions.
5. Nominees need not be present at the November OLT Meeting to self-nominate. Nominees shall submit a letter of intent to the Communications & Membership Manager, no more than one week after nomination, explaining their interest in, and qualifications, for the Executive Board position. If nominees do not provide a letter of intent, ballots will be mailed to Friends without it.
6. After all nominations have been completed, the Communications & Membership Manager will prepare an official sample ballot with all candidates for open positions, listed in alphabetical order, and disseminate the ballot and letters of intent to all Friends eligible to vote. In the event all positions are uncontested, a ballot may not be made.
7. Friends in good standing who wish to vote, but cannot be present at the December OLT Meeting may request an absentee ballot be mailed to them by the Communications & Membership Manager. Friends eligible to vote may do so by absentee ballot, received at the OLT mail box by the elections date and meeting all procedures communicated by the Communications & Membership Manager, or in person at the December OLT Meeting.
8. Nominees and Friends are not permitted to contact Friends by any means during the election period for purposes of campaigning. Should this occur, a majority of the Executive Board can agree to void the nomination.
9. Elections shall occur at the December OLT Meeting, presided over by the Communications & Membership Manager and one additional Friend, who is not a member of the Executive Board or a nominee.
10. The order of elections shall be as follows: President, Vice President, Treasurer, Communications & Membership Manager, Inclusion & Outreach Coordinator, Digital Marketing Manager, and House Manager.
11. In the event that an Executive Board position remains vacant after elections have been completed, the newly elected Executive Board may select a Friend, in good standing, to fill the position, by majority vote. Once a member of the Executive Board, the appointee shall have full privileges and responsibilities of the position, including voting.

VII. Elections Procedures

1. At the start of the December elections meeting, the large outside envelope for absentee ballots will be opened and discarded. This shall be done by the Communications & Membership Manager and one additional Friend, who is not a member of the Executive Board or a nominee.
2. Names on the outside of the small envelopes will be checked off on the official membership list to ensure only one vote is being recorded per Friend. A current list of Friends in good standing shall be provided by the Treasurer at the start of the December elections meeting.
3. Friends in attendance at the meeting shall have the right to void their earlier absentee ballot.
4. The small outside envelopes will then be opened and discarded, without the vote being seen.
5. The tallying of votes shall be carried out by the Communications & Membership Manager and one additional Friend, who is not a member of the Executive Board or a nominee. This person shall be chosen by Friends in attendance. In the event the Communications & Membership Manager is a nominee, the votes for that office will be tallied by two Friends who are not members of the Executive Board or nominees.
6. Slips of paper will be distributed to voting Friends, who will mark their choices on them. These ballots will then be tallied with the absentee ballots by the Communications & Membership Manager and the chosen Friend.
7. Results of the vote for each office shall be announced by the Communications & Membership Manager before voting commences for the subsequent position.

VIII. Performing Arts Events Selection

1. The recommendation of Main stage and Special Productions for each season shall be proposed by a Season Selection Committee, consisting of one Executive Board member selected by the Executive Board and four Friends in good standing that are not members of the Executive Board, nor submitting proposals.
2. The Executive Board shall meet with all director candidates in July and provide production criteria and director assessments to the Committee.
3. A Request For Proposals (RFP) will be sent by the Communications & Membership Manager, in collaboration with the Publicity Chair, in June for the subsequent season. Anyone interested in serving as Director of a Main stage or Special Production shall submit a proposal to the Communications & Membership Manager by July 1.
4. The Season Selection Committee should review all proposals at a meeting at some point during the month of August. The committee shall select the full season of productions from the proposals, by unanimous vote, and recommend their selections to the Executive Board by September 1..
5. The Executive Board shall be responsible for final selection and assigning scheduling of, and obtaining rights for, these productions.

6. Announcement of the subsequent season's Productions will occur in September.
7. The Executive Board may make the selection of Readings throughout the season.
 - 7.1 Friends may submit proposals for readings to the Communications & Membership Manager at any time.
 - 7.2 The Executive Board shall review all proposals received and shall be responsible for accepting or denying the proposal. If accepted, one Executive Board member, chosen by the Friend who submitted the proposal, will be responsible for assigning the scheduling of these readings.
 - 7.3 Announcement of Readings shall occur at the next OLT Meeting after they have been scheduled.

IX. Administrative Procedures

1. Friends of Old Library Theatre
 - 1.1 Anyone 18 and over may become a Friend of Old Library Theatre at any time during the season. Friends may join at the current fee as determined by the executive Board.
 - 1.2. The term of membership is for one (1) calendar year (January 1 through December 31)
 - 1.3 A list of names, addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses of all Executive Board members will be given to the Fair Lawn Recreation Department when a new Board is elected.
 - 1.4 No Friend shall receive remuneration by OLT for participation in any OLT activities outside of paid production staff. The activities are defined for the purposes of this document as: acting, technical crew, or any other facet of production.
 - 1.5 Becoming a Friend is not required for participation in the group.
 - 1.6 Friends who pay dues after auditions for the final production of each season shall remain in good standing through the following season.
2. Budget
 - 2.1 The Executive Board will set the budget for all performing arts events. Any persons to receive remuneration through budget monies for services rendered must complete the necessary paperwork, furnished by the Producer, proving eligibility.
 - 2.2 The Treasurer shall deposit all monies realized from any fund-making endeavor of OLT in the OLT checking account.
 - 2.3 Only the Treasurer, President and Superintendent of Recreation for the Borough of Fair Lawn have check-signing authority on behalf of OLT.
 - 2.4 OLT's current bank is Columbia Savings Bank, Fair Lawn, NJ. The association is also the holder of night deposit bags. Any changes in regard to banking must be approved by the Superintendent of Recreation for the Borough of Fair Lawn.
3. Mail
 - 3.1 OLT's mailing address is Old Library Theatre, 12-45 River Road #103, Fair Lawn, NJ 07410.

4. Constitution & Bylaws

- 4.1 The constitution and by-laws are to be reviewed every three (3) years.
- 4.2 Revisions are to be presented by the President at a monthly Meeting, and then disseminated to Friends in good standing for review by the Communications & Membership Manager. They are to be amended, if necessary, and ratified at the subsequent OLT Meeting.
- 4.3 This constitution may only be amended and ratified by majority vote of those in attendance at the subsequent OLT meeting.

5. OLT Property

- 5.1 No property belonging to OLT shall be loaned to anyone for any reason at any time without the consent of the entire Executive Board.
- 5.2 In the event that any property is loaned out, the person(s) or group borrowing the property will be responsible for full replacement or the repair cost of said property in the event of loss or damage. A rental fee, as determined by the Executive Board, may be charged.
- 5.3 No Board member may loan property belonging to the Borough of Fair Lawn, which is housed in the Fair Lawn Community Center, out at any time.
- 5.4. Executive Board members issued keys for cabinets or Community Center doors must surrender said keys to the incoming Board member. If any Board member resigns or is removed from office, said keys shall be given to the Superintendent of Recreation for the Borough of Fair Lawn, who has the authority to request said keys from any and all Executive Board members at any time.

6. Rehearsals

- 6.1 Executive Board members may attend rehearsals of any performing arts event at any time.
- 6.2 No other person not affiliated with a performing arts event shall attend a rehearsal without approval of both the Director and Producer.

7. Casting

- 7.1 Auditions for any performing arts event should be open to any interested person over the age of 7. In the event persons younger than 7 are required for the production, a notice shall be included in the audition listing.
- 7.2 Casting of all roles in Main stage or Special productions shall occur only following open auditions.
- 7.3 All persons accepting a part in a production are expected to fulfill the obligations that come with accepting that role.
- 7.4 All cast members will be notified of all performance dates at the time of auditions and are expected to notify the Director of any possible conflicts at that time.
- 7.5 Should a role need to be recast after a vacancy has occurred, the Director has the sole discretion to cast the role.

8. Productions

- 8.1 Neither production staff, nor any one member of a production staff, whether a board member or not, shall be empowered to cancel a production for any reason. Only the executive board, by unanimous vote, may cancel a production and then by majority, approve a replacement.

8.2 Any items that are purchased for a production and have been reimbursed are property of the theatre and may not be disposed of or resold without the consent of the Vice President and President.

8.3 The use of any lighting or sound equipment belonging to the Borough of Fair Lawn is strictly prohibited without authorization from the Superintendent of Recreation for the Borough of Fair Lawn, or his designee. It is the responsibility of the producer of the production to obtain any authorizations pertaining to equipment. Any set construction scheduled for a production shall be scheduled by the Producer for said production with the knowledge and permission of the Executive Board.

8.4 Due to Fire Department regulations, there shall be absolutely NO SMOKING in the building at any time, nor use of any open flame in production.

8.5. The use or consumption of alcohol on the premises of the Fair Lawn Community Center is strictly prohibited.
